

(EN) Fool Moon Biography

Rock Band Fool Moon has a heavy and warm sound. Mixing the power of hard rock with the groove of funk, Fool Moon creates driving and vivacious rock music.

Fool Moon is a Dutch rock band born in 2007 from former funk and grunge bands. In 2015 the four-piece band released the album 'Little do we know', containing 16 songs. A full-fledged rock album where the band had been working on with much intensity. It brought the band at various venues and festivals throughout the country. The song "Honey I know" was selected in the second half of 2016 as the opening of the detective series 'The Knight'.

In the summer of 2016 Fool Moon won the band contest "open stage Helvoirts weekend". The reward, recording time in Studio Cube, has been used to record new work.

Earlier, the band released a solid EP titled 'Waiting'. Several songs were played on the alternative radio station Kink FM (now Radio Penguin). It led to participation in a contest in which listeners were allowed to choose their favorite songs from over 500 bands. Fool Moon finished 7th. The band was asked to perform at the holy mainstage of pop temple Paradiso in 2011.

The Fool Moon music has a unique sound, open, funky, often firm, always room for guitar solos. Singer Orlando is known for his intense and exciting style. The band likes to make a solid no-nonsense sound in rock venues, but also acoustically they managed to put away their own atmosphere, especially at full moon.

Fool Moon is formed by singer Orlando, guitarist Wouter Stinesen, bassist David Bull and drummer Thijs Winthagen

Review highlights:

"Guitars bring such power and influence to the mix, almost being used in some instances as backup vocals. The solos rip into you and leave you wanting a little bit more..."

Adam Harvey, Super Sidekick Records

"Catchy guitar riffs worm their way into your subconscious and stay there lingering after the music stops. This is intelligent music with a lot of groove and punch to it. Outstanding also the haunting quality of the lead vocals, that have the power to paint a picture with just a few lines of lyrics..."

Heidi Bobal, 66 Records

(NL) Fool Moon Biografie

Foolmoon is een Zuid-Nederlandse rockformatie geboren in 2007 uit voormalige funk en grunge bandjes. In 2015 bracht de 4-mans formatie het album 'Little do we know' uit, met daarop 16 nummers. Een volwaardig rockalbum waar de bandleden lang aan gewerkt hebben. Het bracht de band op verschillende podia en festivals door het hele land. Ook werd het nummer 'Honey I know' in de tweede helft van 2016 geselecteerd als opening van de detective-serie 'De Ridder'.

In de zomer van 2016 won Foolmoon de band-wedstrijd 'open podium Helvoirts weekend'. De prijs, opnametijd in Studiocube, zal gebruikt worden om nieuw werk op te nemen. Eerder bracht de band een stevige EP uit getiteld 'Waiting'. Daarvan werden verschillende nummers gedraaid op het alternatieve radiostation Kink FM (nu Pinguïn Radio). Dat leidde tot deelname aan een wedstrijd, waarbij luisteraars uit meer dan 500 bands hun favoriete nummers mochten kiezen. Foolmoon eindigde als 7e. Dat betekende een optreden op het heilige mainstage van poptempel Paradiso in 2011.

De muziek van Foolmoon heeft een eigen sound, open, funky, vaak stevig, met altijd ruimte voor gitaarsolo's. Zanger Orlando staat bekend om z'n intense uithalen en opzwepende stijl. De band maakt graag een stevig no-nonsense geluid op rockpodia, maar ook accoustisch weten ze een eigen sfeertje weg te zetten, vooral bij volle maan.

Foolmoon wordt gevormd door zanger Orlando, gitarist Wouter Stinesen, basist David Bul en drummer Thijs Winthagen.
